Mr. Grant W. Shibley, U.E.,
416 Donnybrook Road,
OAKVILLE, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Shibley:

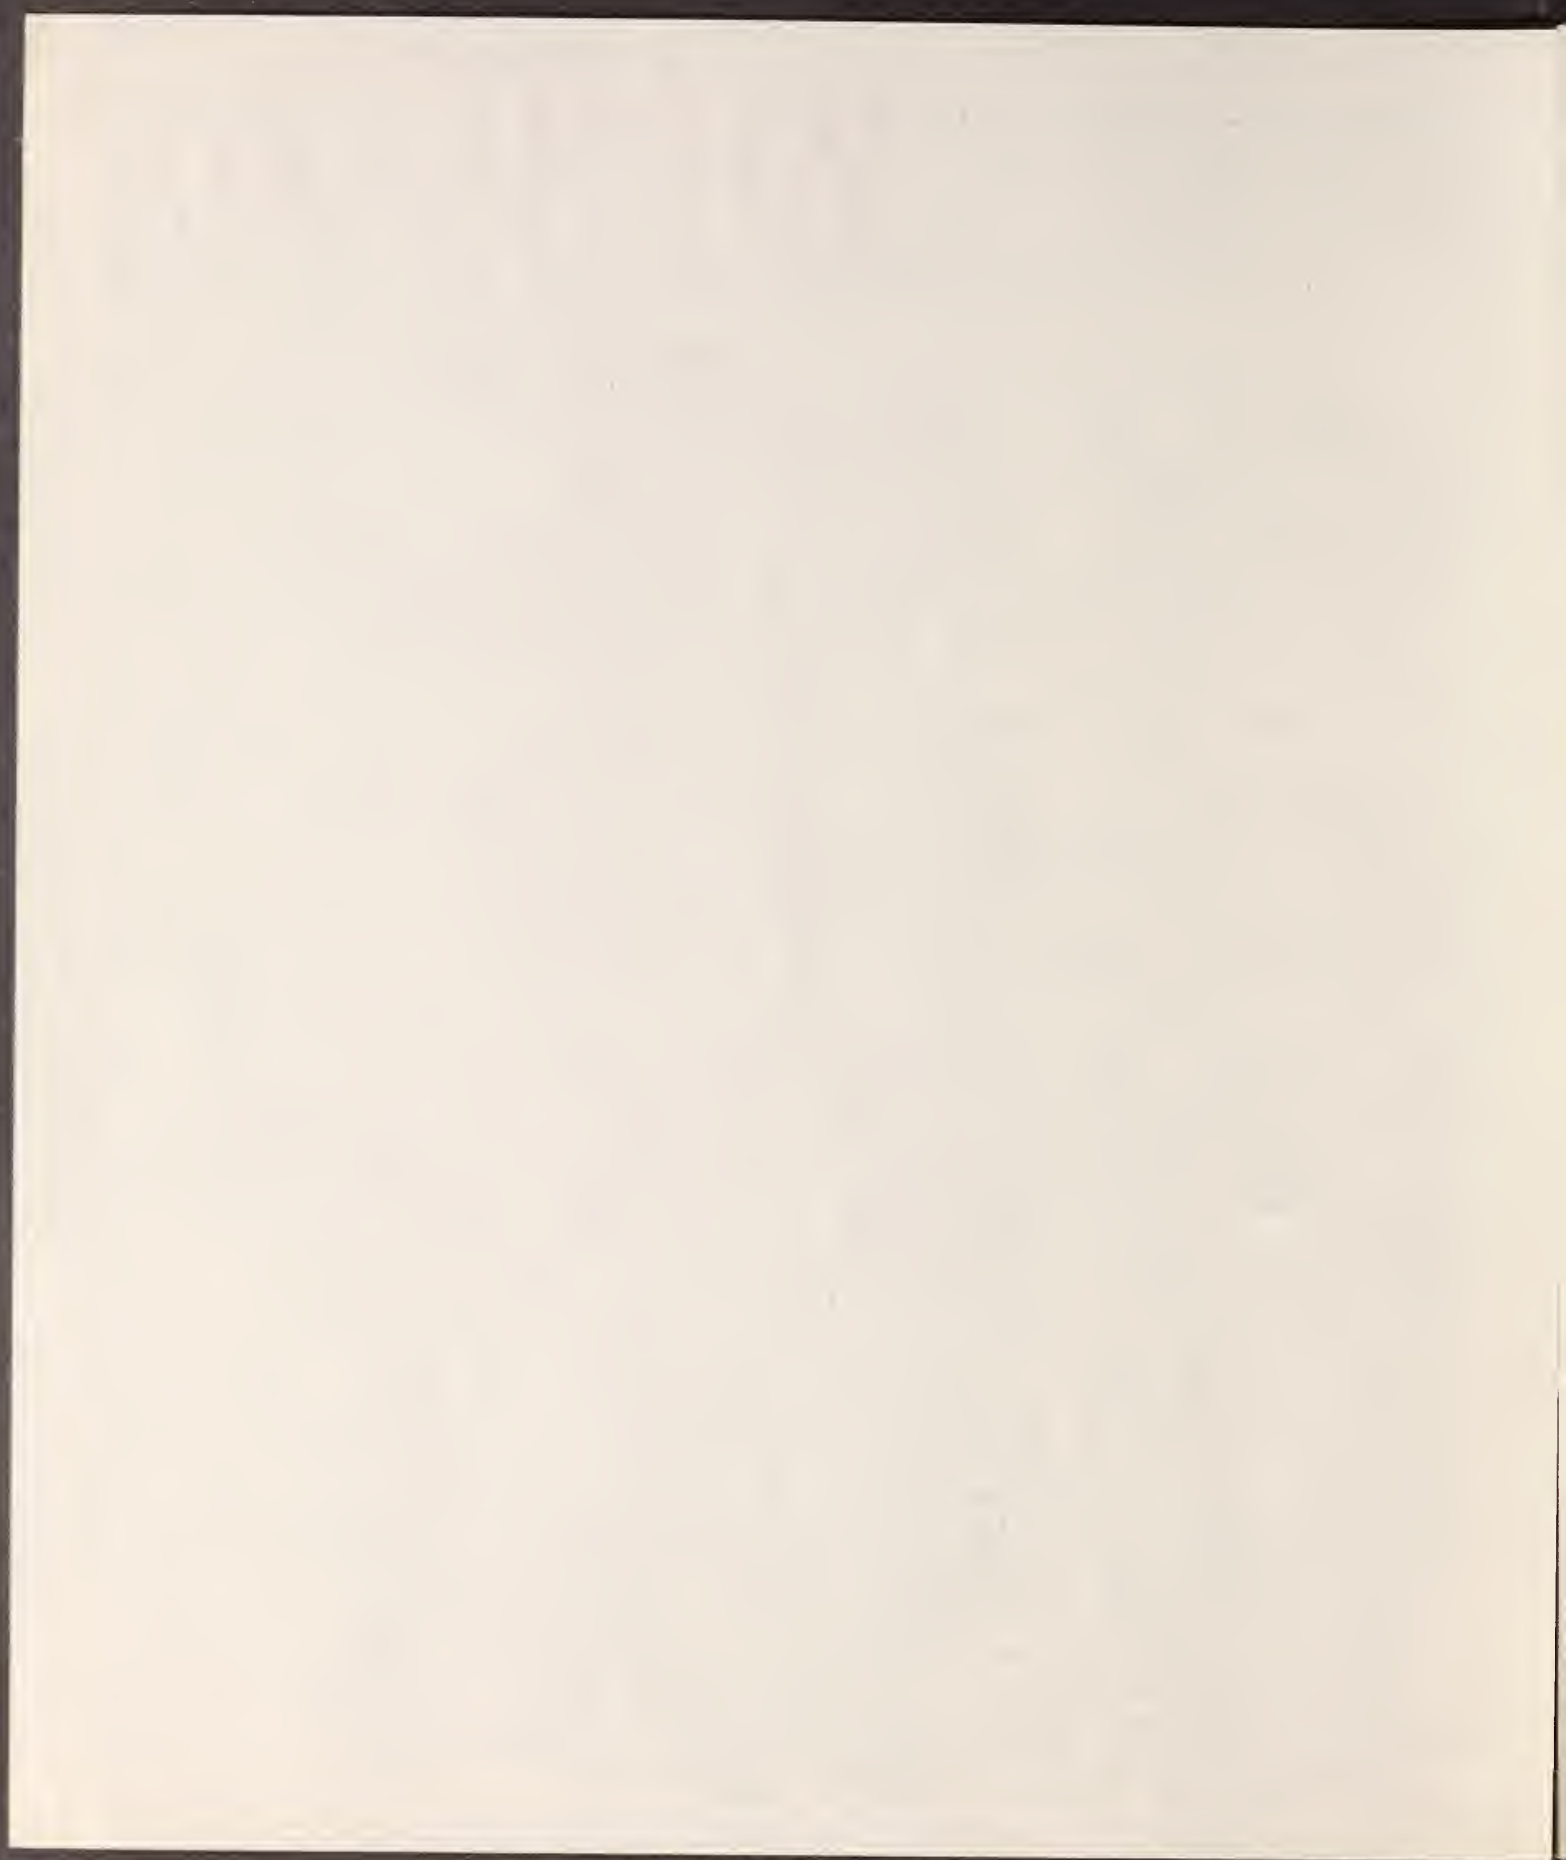

Dr. Burleigh in his usual thoughtful fashion has been so kind as to forward your address to me.

It would appear that we are cousins, both being descendants of Corporal John Shibley, U.E. b. 1752. If you are interested and can readily lay your hands on a copy of the book "The Romance of the Palatine Millers" by Rev. W. Bowman Tucker, published in 1929, you can easily work out our relationship. Your local library may have a copy or may obtain one on an inter-library loan. I think there is a copy at Queen's University and another at the Legislative Library of the Saskatchewan Government at Regina. I am the son of Mark Rowse, M.A., and Janet Howie shown in the Appendix as part of Generation III, No. 7 - Polly Shibley & George Rowse (shown in various records as George Rowse, Junior.)

Just recently I had the good fortune to enter into correspondence with Mr. Harry D. Shibley, 204 S. Fresno Avenue, Coffeyville, Kansas 67337, U.S.A. If you are interested in genealogical matters, I am sure he would appreciate hearing from you. He is, I understand, a descendant of Henry Shibley, a brother of our ancestor mentioned above, Corporal John Shibley. Henry Shibley, whose wife was Elizabeth Shans (Shantz ?), remained in the United States.

Incidentally, one wonders whether there was always as much ill-will generated between those who took the Loyalist side and those who did not, as we have been taught to believe. The reason I say this is because Henry Shibley was one of the thirteen former neighbours of my U.E.L. ancestor, Sergeant George Rowse (Senior), who after the War of the Revolution certified to the losses of George Rowse. The original of this letter is on file along with other documents supporting his claim in the British Museum. My daughter very kindly brought me back a copy on one of her trips to Europe. This paper was signed in 1786 by these men who are shown on the lease maps of Rensselaer's Manor, Albany, N.Y., of that period. In order to verify the authenticity of these signatures, I called in at the Albany Archives on one of my trips through that city and had copies made of the Indentures between Stephen Van Rensselaer, the proprietor of the Manor of Rensselaerwyck, and several of these neighbours, including Henry Shibley. The signatures on the old letter of claims certification of George Rowse made in 1786 and on these Indentures appear to be identical. It is this sort of consideration which removes any rancour which might otherwise linger in my mind when I correspond with distant relatives who are descended from those who did not undergo the hardships which our U.E.L. ancestors experienced.

*Dear Dr. Burleigh:
Thanks so much for your letter of 31 Jan. I am returning Mr. Shibley's letter herewith.
Kindest regards to you & your family.
Newell*

Mr. Harry B. Shibley added to the information in respect of the Shibley family which I already had in part. He informed me that the father of John and Henry Shibley was a John Shibley (Schyblin, Scheibley, etc.) who emigrated to America in 1738 from the Parish of Wenningen in the German Section of Switzerland, arriving in Philadelphia, Penn., February 7, 1739, by the ship Jamaica Galley, Robert Harrison, Commander, from Rotterdam, last of Cowes, Engrand; 320 passengers in all. There was another passenger by the name of Henry Shibley on the ship. Moreover a Heinrich Schyblin and a Lisabeth Schyblin are shown along with Hansz (i.e. John) as leaving the Parish of Wenningen in 1738. It is not known whether Lisabeth was a sister or perhaps a wife of either Heinrich or Hansz. One might suspect that Henry was a brother of John, since the name Henry frequently occurs in John Shibley's genealogy.

John appears to have later returned to Switzerland for 18 to 20 months and arrived in Philadelphia a second time on August 15, 1750, on the ship Royal Union, Clement Nicholson, Commander, from Rotterdam, last of Cowes, England. He is said to have journeyed 1200 miles up the Rhine River to Rotterdam (sic, the distance and the direction seem wrong.) When he came from Switzerland the second time he brought some of the precious metals and engaged in this business until his death which was about the time of the American Revolution. He was very successful until the time of the War when he failed. He lived in New York City for a time, then moved to the town of Schodack in Rensselaer's Manor, in Albany County at that time, now Rensselaer County. There were two children by his first wife said to have been "an Irish girl." Corporal John Shibley, U.E., was a son of his second wife, Jane Ann Wergmann (Wagman, Wugmannard) of Holland. He was born at Nine Partners, Dutchess County, N.Y., in 1752. He married Magdalena (Helen) Cordanier at Albany, N.Y. on April 18, 1774.

Dr. Burleigh mentioned your concern relative to the little private Shibley graveyard at Bath, Ontario. Attached are copies of an exchange of correspondence with the Bay of Quine U.E.L. Branch. You will note in Mrs. Neda Hart's letter of November 9, 1970, that the Bath Village Council has fenced the Shibley cemetery in and is maintaining it pursuant to Section 60 of the Ontario Cemeteries Act. This would appear to indicate that everything is in order.

If, however, there is some thought in your mind of strengthening the position by following Dr. Burleigh's advice of having the registry office records at Napanee searched to determine whether the cemetery had been reserved when David Shibley sold the property in 1840, I would be glad to share in any expense which might be incurred.

In closing, I would ask you to let me have the name or names of any member or members of the Shibley family who you know is interested in family history. I would be glad to arrange an exchange of data with anyone so interested.

With kindest regards, Yours very truly, C.N.Rowse

Catherine

I do not have any information about Catherine. The Public Archives of Canada at Ottawa gave me her name as receiving land, U.E.L.

My records on the Canadian line of the Shibley family are very incomplete.

Mrs. Gladys Sexsmith of Bath is a descendant of John Shibley and she sent me a copy of a chart which she owns, but there isn't a date on it. She did not have all of the children of John and Helena either.

Also if I could find the War record of John C. Vosburgh, that might give his age.

9 Sibley Place, Rochester, N.Y., June 16, 1938.

Dr. H. C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ontario, Canada.

My dear Dr. Burleigh:

Thank you very much for your letter. I am quite sure the John Vosburgh who married your great grandmother's sister was a brother of my grandmother, Asenath Vosburgh. I think the John Vosburgh, Sr. in the law suits was the John born 1799 and the John J. Vosburgh could have been his son.

My father, a son of Asenath Vosburgh and Gilbert Van Valkenburgh, says he remembers this John and he was an old man when he was a boy. My father was born in 1859. He said he thought this John came from around Ernesttown somewhere.

I do not know where John C. Vosburgh died, I think it was Sacket's Harbor, N.Y. After the War of 1812 they settled there, but after he died his wife, Hannah Shibley went to live with her daughter Asenath Vosburgh Van Valkenburgh and died at Hinchbrook, Ont., about 1865. My father vaguely remembers this date and is not sure.

"George, Henry and Jacob Gardinier. Residence Unknown. Were grantees of the City of St. John, New Brunswick." pg. 315. The American Loyalists by Lorenzo Sabine. This Jacob Gardinier was the father of Helena Gardinier who married John Shibley. In a record of the Shibley family owned by Ray Shibley of Schenectady it says that John Shibley's father in law was a Kingsman at the time of the Revolution and fled to Canada taking his daughter (John's wife) with him as a stowaway. When the war was over, John went to Canada, found his wife, and Jacob Gardinier appointed him King's Surveyor. The name is spelled many different ways, - Gardeier, Gardinier, Goordineer, etc., but it is all the same name. The Albany year book gives it Gardinier. I am enclosing the children of John and Helena as I have it. It was furnished me by Colonel Stuart Wood, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Ottawa, Canada. He is a descendant of John Shibley. I think it was compiled by Schuyler Shibley was the son of Henry and Henry was the son of John. Schuyler was born 1820. There is an account of Schuyler in the History of Lennox and Addington Counties but it is incorrect. They say his father was Jacob but it wasn't. I have a letter written by Schuyler and signed by him saying he was the son of Henry,

I am compiling the genealogy of the Shibley family and any help you can give me will be greatly appreciated. I have the American line very complete but the Canadian line is in terrible shape. I have written and written to Canada trying to find out information, but the Shibleys in Canada do not answer me.

If there is someone who would see if John C. Vosburgh has a Will probated at Kingston - where the land was located that the Canadian government granted them - when it was sold - find out any information about the Masonic Lodge that used to be at Hallowell, Prince Edward County, Ontario, I shall be glad to pay them. I would like an estimate first. If there is any record anywhere in Canada that would give his age, then I could know for sure which John C. Vosburgh I am looking for. I am almost positive he was the son of Cornelius Vosburgh of Kinderhook, Columbia County, New York, and was born in 1765 at Kinderhook and went up into Canada in 1792. If there is any way to prove this, I would be delighted because I have been working on this two years and do not have any definite proof yet.

In the 1835 Census at Sacket's Harbor, N.Y., John C. Vosburgh is not given but his wife Anna Vosburgh is given. I take from this that he died before 1835 and sometime between 1829 and 1835 because my grandmother, Asenath Vosburgh, went to see her father before he died and she was married in 1829.

I do appreciate your letter and also your interest. If there is any further information that I have, I shall be glad to send it to you. Sincerely yours,

(This) Pearl Van Valkenburgh

Col. Wood of Ottawa said John Shibley had Lots 4 & 5.

9 Sibley Place, Rochester, N.Y., June 23, 1938.

Dr. H. C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ontario.

My dear Dr. Burleigh:

I am enclosing a copy of the record I have of my mother's family. She came from Roblin and all of her people live in the vicinity of Napanee. I thought you might be interested.

I wonder if you can estimate the cost of the Shibley data. I have many names and a copy of the chart that Mrs. Sexsmith owns and also the chart that Col. Wood of Ottawa owns, but I have very few dates of birth, marriage, and death, and this is the important information I want. Do you have these? I have already spent a great deal of money in compiling this genealogy and have given away whatever information I have collected to anyone who has written. I am not seeking to make any money out of this data. I want to preserve the records of the family. I am not a professional genealogist; just a hobby of mine. Hannah Shibley, daughter of John Shibley, was my great grandmother and that is why I am interested. I hope I may be able to publish it myself but if it is too expensive, I'll hand it over to some genealogical society to publish. Or I may give it to a George Henry Shibley of Denver, Colo., who is in "Who's Who in America" to publish if he will. I would rather someone else published it than not to have it published at all. And I do want to include the Canadian line.

If I should come to Canada this summer and use part of my vacation in looking up records, perhaps you would let me see what you have. If you come to Rochester any time, let me know for I shall be glad to see you.

I would be glad to pay for the typing of the Vosburgh will if there is any. He died in Sacket's Harbor, N.Y., but I can't find a trace of him there. Asenath Vosburgh, a daughter and my grandmother, was born at Sacket's Harbor but when she was a year old, she was baptized in Ernesttown. All of the children that I know about were baptized at Ernesttown. George, a son, was a sailor and he too lived at Sacket's Harbor. His sister, Asenath, used to go with him across the lake and that is how she met Gilbert Van Valkenburgh, and they were married at Ernesttown. Perhaps John was a sailor too and that's what took him to Canada, - to sail on Lake Ontario. You notice in one of the records I sent you that Jacob Gardinier (It is spelled that way in all of the New York records) owned land in Kinderhook, N.Y., and that is where the Vosburgh family first settled. It may be that the two families knew each other and that is why John went up to Canada. I am satisfied in my own mind that the John C. Vosburgh of Kinderhook was the one that went up into Canada, but I have no proof of it.

I know your time is valuable and it does cost money to look up records but perhaps if I come to Canada this summer, I might do that myself. Thank you very much for your interest in my problem and what you have already done. I cannot ask you to do more. If there is anything I can look up for you in Rochester, I shall be glad to do so free of charge in return for what you have done for me.

Sincerely yours,
Pearl Van Valkenburgh.

As a Mr. Vosburgh was a member of Hallowell Lodge, perhaps he lived in that vicinity.

Dear Dr Burleigh:

I was recently looking through the March 1977 issue of the Ontario Genealogical Society Newsleaf and came across a description of your booklet entitled "The Amey Brothers of Ernesttown". The name Shibley was mentioned and this caught my ^{eye} since I have come across this family in some of my research. I have been doing some research into the family of John Kiwan (c. 1794 - 1862) and his wife Orrilla Culver (c. 1804 - 1882). The following is a list of their children and I'm not sure they are listed in the correct order but this is the best I can do:

- (1) Samuel Kiwan
- (2) Mary Kiwan b.c. 1820 m. James Lemon
- (3) Martin Kiwan b.c. 1826 m. Catherine (?)
- (4) Elias Kiwan b.c. 1828 m. Jane (?)
- (5) Maria Kiwan b.c. 1830 m. James Atkins
- (6) Olive Kiwan bc. 1832 m. John Lemon
- (7) Sarah Jane Kiwan bc. 1833 m. Joseph C. Atkins
- (8) John Kiwan bc 1835 m. Elizabeth McAllan (?)
- (9) Schuyler Kiwan bc. 1837 m. Margaret Menary
- (10) Caroline Kiwan bc. 1839 m. George Johnson
- (11) William Kiwan bc. 1842 m. Elizabeth Walmsley
- (12) Ellen Kiwan bc. 1845 m. William Blackshaw

I am a great-great-grandson of Olive Kiwan and her husband John Lemon. The Kiwans moved from Port Hope to St Vincent Township, Grey County in 1841. John Kiwan, senior, settled on lot 35 concession 12 St Vincent. According to the censuses for that Township John Kiwan was born in Ireland and was Roman Catholic and Orvilla Culver was born in the United States and was Methodist. The tradition in the family is that Orvilla's father was a Loyalist but I don't understand how she could have been born in the States about 1804 and still be the daughter of a Loyalist. I am not sure the above list is a complete list of the children of John and Orvilla. Two common names in the family were Schuyler and Rensselaer. I found the marriage record of Mary Kiwan and James Lemon in 1841 in the Marriage Register for Newcastle District (p. 38). In looking through the abstract index to deeds for St Vincent Township I came across the name Schuyler Shibley on properties in concession 12 in the vicinity of the Kiwan properties. - also I saw the names Rensselaer Saunders and Rensselaer Leavens. Naturally I was interested in these families. When I looked up the actual deeds to the Shibley properties I discovered that Schuyler Shibley was of Portland Township, Frontenac County and that his wife's name was Mary Ann. I also came across the name Henry Shibley also of Portland Township. I cannot find any Shibleys in the censuses for St Vincent township but I did find some in the 1851 and 1861 censuses for Portland Township. I have not yet examined the 1871 census for Portland Township.

As you may know part of the 1851 census for Portland Township is missing and I found the 1861 census difficult to read.

However it is clear there were a number of Shibley families living in Portland Township. Judging from what I have seen it would not surprise me if the Shibleys were related somehow to Orvilla (Culver) Kiwan. I do not know the names of any of Orvilla's brothers or sisters or her parents but I have been told that she came from Oyster Bay, New Jersey and that she married twice and possibly to two Kiwans.

You may know much more than I about the Shibleys and if you could let me know of any connection between the Shibleys and the Kiwans I would appreciate it very much. Also do you have any suggestions as to whom I might contact for information about the Culvers? I am enclosing $5 to cover the price for one copy of your booklet about the Arney brothers and postage and also to pay you a little for this inconvenience. Before I forget my address is Mark Lemon, R. R. 2, Annan, Ontario N0H 1B0.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours truly,

Mark Lemon

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Could you please tell me where I can order a copy of your book "Forgotten Leaves of History, Kingston"?

I am interested in the early history of Kingston because my families lived in and around Kingston. My great grandfather, George B. Shibley, for whom I am searching, was supposedly born in Bath (about 1820-1830) and my grandfather, George Benjamin Baker Shibley, was born in Newburgh in 1861. Other children were born in Kingston.

Sincerely,

Shibley Joan Cahill

Dear Dr Burleigh

I received the copy of Mr E Rae Stuarts' bound theses of Jessup's Rangers (etc) in safe and sound condition, and in accordance with our talk, concerning U. E. L matters in your office, enclosed is the copy of Heringtons' History of the County of Lennox and Addington.

The copy (enclosed) here, belonged to my Uncle Cliff Reynolds, of Kingston, and my Aunt Hetty (Shibley) his wife very thoughtfully, gave it to me a few years ago.

The copy of this volume that I have is one, that was presented to Mr Justice Sutherland by the author in May 1915, and I received it from Mr Alistair Gosart (now Senator) about 1950, here in Toronto.

My letter to you was interrupted by family, visitors and being just 'very busy'.

I would like to visit you, and yours, all the very best for 1872 Dr. I will be past Bath again about March 1st (approx), and if it is alright with you, I will call by.

Thank you for your kind thoughts, and advice on U & L matters

Old Barn May Hold Secret Of Cemetery

A barn about to be torn down on the Canada Cement LaFarge Co., property along No.33 Highway, west of Bath, is expected to provide some clue to a mystery surrounding an old cemetery on the site.

It is thought that headstones from the small cemetery might have been used as cornerstones for the barn when it was built.

The company is taking precautions to ensure that the old cemetery located in the southeast corner of a lot on the property is preserved. An iron fence with carefully carved wooden corner posts originally enclosed the three graves in the cemetery. There are presently no headstones or other grave markings. A large clump of lilacs growing over the graves sets the cemetery apart from the surrounding fields.

Barns, sheds, garages and some houses are being torn down by the company in preparation for preliminary excavations on the cement company property that are scheduled to begin soon as the industry moves forward in its development.

About 90 percent of all of Canada's forest products exports go to United States, United Kingdom and Japan.

STILL MOST

By Bill Smiley

Towards the end of a long, dreary winter like this year's, even the most jubilant of spirits begin to flag. The world takes on a gray monotony, about the colour and taste of English gravy.

We seem to be suspended in a vague nightmare in which we are swimming in porridge, with no land in sight. We have forgotten the glory of the individual spirit and our fellow-beings seem to merge into the murk.

Right there is the point at which we need a good spring tonic. In the old days our mothers gave us a physical one, in the shape of a good purge, and it seemed to help.

But in these days of instant laxatives, we need something for the spirit, not the body. I got my tonic this year, just in time. It was in the form of two stories, both true. My faith in the colour and vitality of the human spirit was restored, and I feel like living again.

The first one contained enough irony and humanity to satisfy the most demanding of writers. It concerned a bank hold-up.

The manager was out to lunch when the desperado struck. He slipped a note to one of the tellers informing her that it was a stick-up, then slipped a sawed-off shotgun from under his coat, and went to the front counter.

Chatting happily on the phone to his girl-friend, the accountant had his back to the villain. The latter waited politely for him to finish his call and get the message.

A lady teller, trying to get the accountant's attention, kept hissing at him, "Dave! Dave!" He went blithely on, while the robber began to drum his fingers on the counter with just a touch of impatience.

Finally, he roared in a stentorian voice, "DAVE!"

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I have not been able to contact you regarding the situation with the Shibley grave & the cement company, due to pressure both business & personal.

However, my time is beginning to free up, a little, and I intend taking whatever positive action that is within the realm of my capabilities to muster.

The one thing that annoys me the most about the whole matter is, that until I met you, a few years ago, I would never have known the location of the grave site. I never knew it existed through my own family channels of communication, all of whom (the oldsters) discouraged any talk of the old days.

There are several courses of action open to me in dealing with the threat to ^{the} grove, and it now appears, that if any action is to be taken, it will be I, who will have to take it.

I should like to make it clear that I am not a 'rich man', and at the same time impress upon you the feeling of revulsion, and abhorrence I have with the knowledge that my forbears, even at this time in history, know no peace, even in their last resting place.

In order that you may know what I have in mind in initiating some course of action, please note the following.

(1) Contacting the Attorney General's office

Grant W. Shibley

in person, and in writing. To find out what they can advise, or are prepared to do to protect the grave.

(2) Contacting the cement company to advise them in writing of the exact location of the grave, and what posture they intend to adopt in their regard for it.

(3) Advise Canadian Legion, to determine from them, what action they are prepared to take to protect the grave of a Canadian War veteran, and his wife. (my family may never have produced great politicians or ministers, but when Canada needed them, they never hesitated to pick up a rifle and fight for it, and spill their blood for it)

(4) Investigate what action, or attitude the Imperial War Graves Commission takes in matters of this type. (London England)

Children of this marriage were:

4. Christina married George Rouse and settled in Montreal.
5. John married Helena Gardenier at Dutch Reformed Church, Albany, New York, 1774 (Holland Year Book, 1922-23).

Helena Gardinier's father was a Kingsman (loyalist) and he fled to Canada taking his daughter with him as a stowaway. John Shibley was in the Revolutionary War and about the end of the war John found his wife in the King's Dominion, went there and his father-in-law had him appointed King's surveyor and he settled above Kingston and became wealthy. This from a record owned by Ray Shibley, 124 Furman Street, Schenectady, N.Y., a descendant from Henry Shibley, son of John and Jane Ann (Wagman) Shibley.

I found where John Shibley enlisted in the Revolutionary War from the State of New Jersey.

THE WH

Former Kingstonian Dies in the North

1928

Word has been received of the death in Haileybury on September 20th, of John Shibley, a former well-known resident of the Township of Portland, and of the city of Kingston. The funeral will be held on Sunday at Haileybury and interment will take place there.

The late John Shibley was born in Fergus district but when he was three weeks old, his parents moved to the Township of Portland where the young lad grew up until the age of sixteen years when he entered the service of the Kingston and Pembroke Railway. He held various positions on the Kingston and Pembroke line and was agent at several stations, latterly being despatcher at Kingston.

Twenty-five years ago he went to Haileybury as the first agent there for the T. N. & O. Line and for two years carried on the business of the station in a box car. He was one of the very first settlers in Haileybury and saw the town built, burned down and rebuilt.

Mr. Shibley was active in the civic affairs of Haileybury and took part in anything that tended towards its progress. He was a member of the Masonic Order, the Oddfellows and the Prentice Boys.

Mr. Shibley was of United Empire Loyalist descent on both sides, his great grandfather, Bryan Spike, being the first man to fell a tree in Portland for settlement.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, and one son, Lionel of Rome, Laura and Hilda of Toronto and Mrs. Crawford of Bradford. One sister, Mrs. Norman Leslie of Godfrey also survives.

Deaths - Funerals

MRS. NORMAN LESLIE

There passed to rest at her home near Picadilly, Mrs. Norman Leslie, formerly Ida Shibley in her 78th year. Mrs. Leslie had been in failing health for a lengthy period, but was not taken seriously until a week before her death. She was born near Harrowsmith and was the elder daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Absalmon Shibley. Sep. 1939

The funeral was held from the family residence and was largely attended by relatives and friends. An anthem was sung "There Is a Beautiful Land." Many beautiful and floral tributes were received showing the esteem and love in which Mrs. Leslie was held.

There are left to mourn her loss her husband, Norman Leslie, four sons, Arnold at home, Frank of Kirkland Lake, Dewitt of Kingston, Roy of Biscotasing; two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Cronk of Parham and Velletta at home; one sister, Mrs. Lewis Campbell, Wellesboro, P.A.; ten grandchildren. One son, Hugh, and her only brother, John H. Shibley, predeceased her ten years ago.

The pall-bearers were Frank Haddock, Thomas Buckley, Ray Babcock, William Hicks, Arthur McLeod, Wilson Buckley. Interment in the family plot at Parham cemetery.

News from the

Couple Well Known in Kingston Mark Golden Wedding in Ottawa

Letters, telegrams and cards conveying good wishes and affectionate greetings poured in to the home of Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Cramm, 298 Waverley street, Ottawa, on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary, September 24.

Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Cramm (the former Jennie Shibley) were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shibley, Harrowsmith, on September 24, 1902, by the Rev. Dr. Jordan, Professor of Hebrew at Queen's Theological College. Dr. William Moffatt was best man and Mrs. Charlotte Shibley (Mrs. Clarence Amey), sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Both graduates of Queen's University, Mrs. Cramm with the degree of B.A., and Mr. Cramm with B.A. and B.D., they have been active members of Queen's Alumni throughout the years.

Observing the anniversary quietly at their home, great masses of flowers from friends and admirers added beauty.

From the minister, Rev. Donald Bruce Macdonald, and the Session of Westboro United Church, where Mr. Cramm served from 1912 to 1926, came warm greetings, and the announcement that a stained glass window was being erected in the Westboro church as "a tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Cramm." From the Session of Chalmers, where Mr. Cramm has been an honored member of the Session, and for some years assistant minister, and Mrs. Cramm a leader in women's work, came cordial greetings.

Queen's University, through its principal, Dr. W. A. Mackintosh, and Queen's Theological College through Rev. Dr. S. M. Gilmour, sent good wishes; the Queen's Alumni of Ottawa sending flowers.

Serving more than 50 years in the ministry, where he was ably assisted by Mrs. Cramm, his first charge as an ordained minister was at Cobden.

Called to Manotick where he served five years, Mr. Cramm assumed the ministry of Westboro United Church in 1912 where he gave leadership in bringing the former Methodist and Presbyterian Churches into Union, and in building the new church. He closed his ministry at Apple River in Glengarry, but even in retirement served as minister in Ottawa West and Wesley United Churches, as assistant in Chalmers and he gave frequent pulpit supply throughout the Ottawa Valley.

Particularly noted for his outstanding work as a pastor, and his faithfulness in visiting the homes of the people, Mr. Cramm greatly appreciated a telegram from Rev. and Mrs. Frank Morgan of Regina, Sask., one of his young men who now occupies an important pulpit in the United Church of Canada.

Dear Dr Burleigh

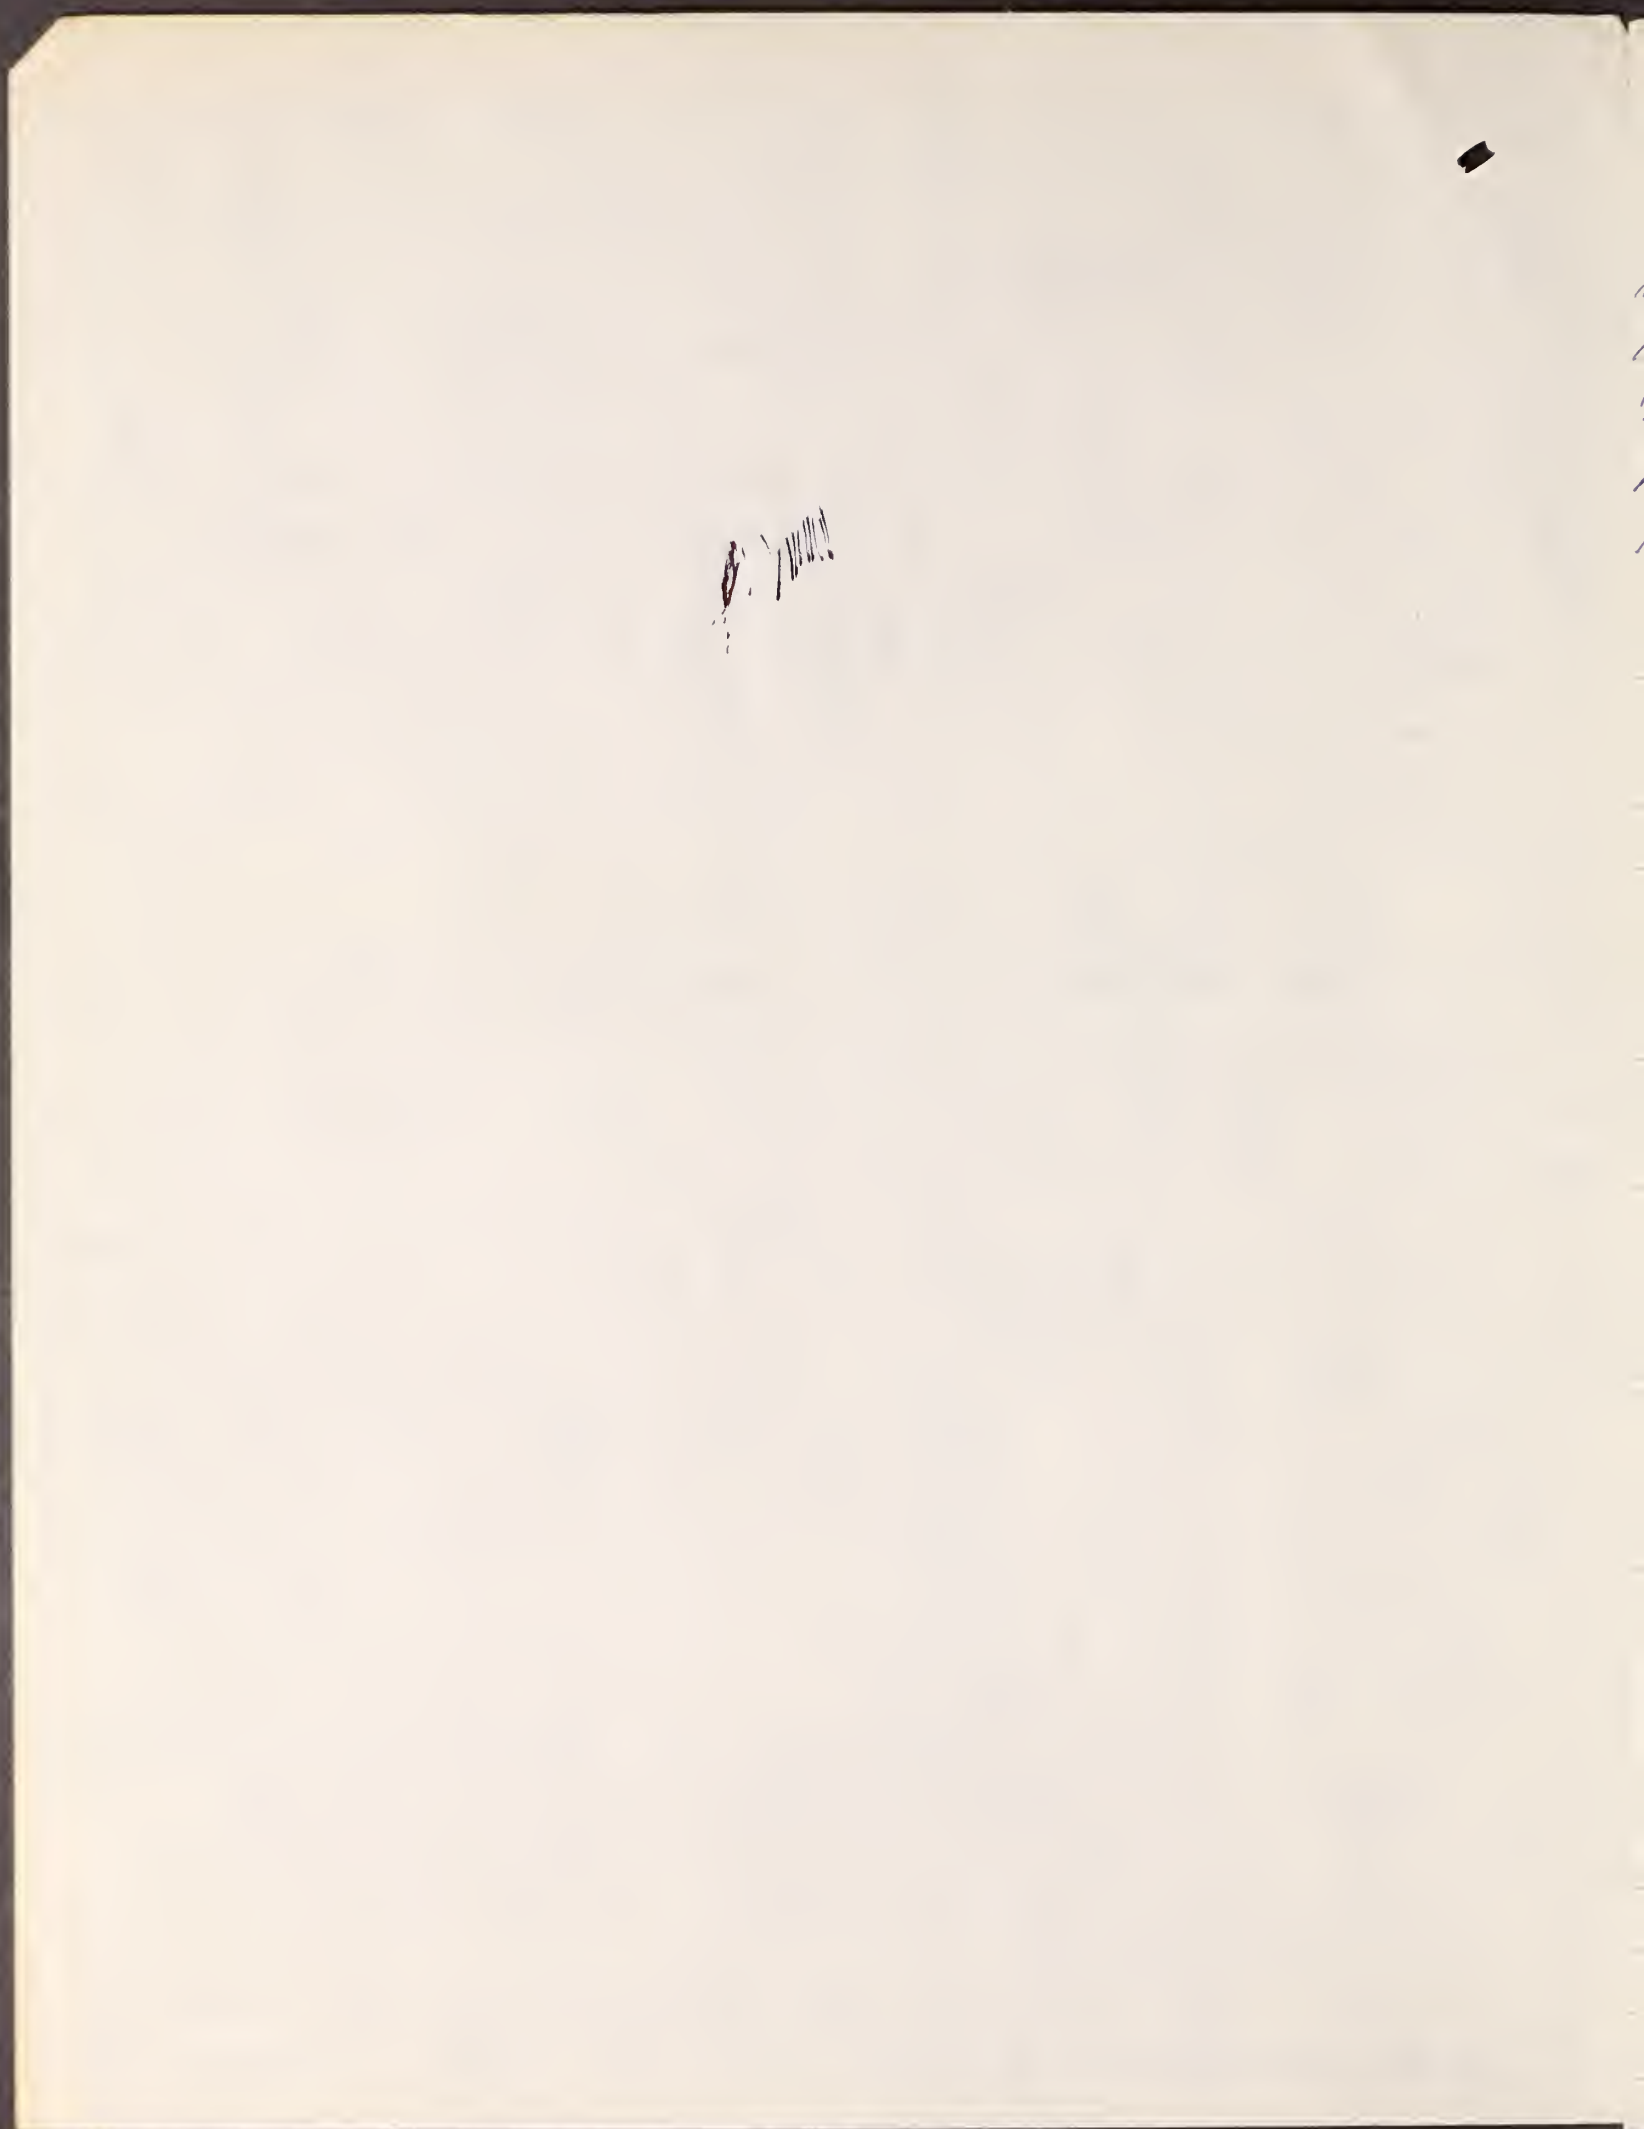

I received back, the copy of Lossings, Selyer Vol I, with thanks. If it is of any value to you - you may have it - as I know it would be in good hands. I have every hope of obtaining Vol II - in the not too distant future - which when I scan - I'll send to you immediately.

I was disappointed that Rubin didn't receive the nomination - you where no doubt interested in this too - I still think he ~~was~~ ^{is} the best man. Stanfield will be a hard lump for the Frenchmen to swallow, if he makes it, as P.M. As you are ~~too~~ no doubt keenly aware - we are living in another, of our country's historical moments.

I didn't 'feel the pinch', when you folded that tree of mine up, to go into your pocket - I would like to say tho - that in the next few months - I'll be making up another, with additional detail - and will be having it set in type - but before doing so, would like to check it over with you.

I am gaining a lot of knowledge from ^{the} thesis on Jesuits Corps, I will be returning it to you, along with your notes in the near future.

I should like very much to belong the Bath Historical Society, and the U. E. L. Society there also. and when you have a moment, would you write and let me know what rituals or monies I would be required to produce. I would appreciate your sponsorship, sincerely. I would like to attend some of the meetings too.

Thank you for your time and encouragement.

Yours sincerely

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I hope by the time you receive this letter, you will have received Lussing's, Life of Philip Schuyler Vol I. The second volume of the set would be most interesting if it could be located. I would appreciate your reaction to this book, perhaps it after all, there is nothing of value in it, but, it does describe life in quite good detail of the Revolutionary period.

It was a great pleasure for me to have the honour of discussing our common interest, the Loyalists on July 19th last. Since then, on July 25/67 in Peterborough a Shibley boy was born, Jason Wilfred Shibley. At the present time, the future of the Shibleys in my line, are dependent upon him.

I am deep into Jessups Rangers, and find it most interesting, and I consider it to be of great value. But for you, it never would have existed. I wonder, if the same type of record could be created for the King's Loyal Americans, and Rogers' group. Do you consider this possible?

My Mother was a MacLean, from the Isle of Mull, (off the coast of Scotland).

Her father Archibald MacLean, and his father before him served with the 42nd Highlanders, (the Black Watch) and they^(the members) served all over the world before coming to Canada about 1890. I have a copy a book, entitled the History of the 42nd Highlanders, published in 1842 which belonged to my grandfather MacLean, it is of great value to me. In it is described in quite some detail the massacre at Fort William-Henry in which a company of Black Watch participated, and perished.

Regiments, and things military are as natural to me, as the rain from Heaven. One of my projects which I pursue with some vigor, from time to time, is the McKenzie-Papineau Battalion, which fought in the Spanish Civil War 1936-38. There are still some survivors about, and I am deeply interested in their story. If ever there was an unsung, unrecognized group of men, unrecorded and unappreciated it is they. They were fighting our battles early, against an enemy we all eventually had to fight from 1939-45. I am not politically oriented in any direction.

Being of a military bent family, you cannot imagine how thrilled I was when I discovered in 1950 that the Shilleys, served with a fighting unit during the Revolutionary War of 1776. Until this time, I had been under the impression that the MacLeans, (my mother) were the major contributors in this respect, to the Shilley blood lines. The one dis-appointment my Mother had to bear about 1941 was, that I joined the 1st Battalion Irish Regiment of Canada, with a group of my pals. She had a great influence on my life, as she was a proud 'Scot' and if she had been a man, would have been a 'kind of' fighting battalion, all unto itself.

However, my interests ^{are} always with that group of 3 or 4 thousand, Americans who came to Canada, who became known as Loyalists.

I have a pet theory - which is, that they hated the American rebels and their uncouth, barbaric ways, somewhat more than the fumbling chaos created by the British, in their attempts to put down the rebellion. They chose the lesser of the two evils - and took their chances, acting on the reaction of their personal principles, which were Christian and orderly. They acted, when no reward, or payment for their service was apparent.

Getting back to the present, I am, using the Palatine Miller's (Tucker) record of the Shillies, as a starting point, about to make up a rough tree which I'll forward to you in the immediate future, ~~for~~ for your examination.

I have strong connections in the printing, and lithograph industry, here in Toronto, and in time with your assistance, guidance and approval will have the whole tree set in type.

I will be in Bath again to see you, in Sept, I'll write to you first, as I would like talk to you further,
not just about my family, but other men and people of the times, of the Loyalists.

I am not an educated man, but if experience in life itself, is any sheepskin, then I possess the largest 'sheep' of all.

Sincerely

Chas W Stibley.

Couple Wed Sixty Years Tomorrow

27 Mar. 1965

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Shibley, who reside with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clifford Shibley and grandson David, at RR 1, Cataraqui, will celebrate 60 years of marriage tomorrow in the midst of family and friends.

The Shibley's were married at Harrowsmith, March 28, 1905, by the Rev. Mr. Service and lived in that community until 25 years ago when they took up residence with their son Clifford and his wife.

Mr. Shibley, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Byard Shibley, Harrowsmith, is the fifth generation of a well-known district family whose Canadian story goes back to John Shibley, a United Empire Loyalist, who left Pennsylvania during the American Revolution and settled at Bath.

Mrs. Shibley is the former Myrtle Hughes, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anson Hughes of Harrowsmith.

The Shibleys had three children, Mrs. Beatrice Kerr of Verona, Roy Shibley of Kingston and Clifford, who died last November. They have 12 grandchildren living. One granddaughter, Anne Myrtle Shibley, daughter of their son Clifford, died in 1959. They also have five great-grandchildren.

Mr. Shibley will be 81 this year and his wife will be 79. They are in excellent health and are anticipating sharing their diamond wedding anniversary celebration with their family, neighbors and friends at their daughter-in-law's home in the Aylesworth subdivision.

Latin Al. For Que Co-eds

Two Queen's University students were winners in Latin translation contests at Canadian universities and colleges.

Diana Swift of Toronto, a 21-year-old honors Latin student, won the top prize in the contest to English translation in which about 1,000 students from 25 universities and colleges competed.

Lucille Roy, 21, of Kingston, an honors student in Latin and English at Queen's, was regional winner in the Eastern Ontario area.

Co-eds took all the top prizes in the contest it was announced today by Rev. Dr. E. Gareau, OMI, chairman of the Latin and Greek at University of Ottawa and president of the Classical Association of Canada, which sponsors the contest.

Runner-up to Miss Swift was Linda Crandall of Brantford, a student at McMaster University, Hamilton. Dianequette, an arts student at the University of Ottawa, won the Latin to French contest in which about 1,700 students participated.

The students wrote the translations last Feb. 2 on their campuses.

The winners receive prizes ranging from $35 for first place to $15 for regional winners.

Questions and Answers On Highway Travel

Ontario Motor League
Eastern Ontario Club

QUESTION: Could you please give me the following information for a regular car with an average late model car: What does it cost to operate a car for a full year including insurance, gas, etc. This would be on a mileage of around 10,000 to 12,000 miles a year. Any statistics on this matter would be very much appreciated.

—A. Montre, Kingston.

ANSWER: Cost of operating with America's passenger cars have remained virtually unchanged during the past years, the American Automobile Association reports.

Mileage costs — gas, oil, tires and routine maintenance remain unchanged at 3.7 cents a mile. Fixed costs — depreciation, insurance and registration—are up slightly, amounting to $807 per year as against $792 two years ago, the report showed. Much of the increase is accounted for by slightly higher insurance costs, AAA said.

This new edition of AAA's "Your Driving Costs", which is issued every two years, is based upon a 1965 eight-cylinder standard car of the lower price class. Following is a breakdown of the various cost elements:

Variable Costs	Average Per Mile
Gas and oil	2.58 cents
Maintenance	.68 cents
Tires	.44 cents
	3.70 cents

lows: $10.50 for meals and snacks; $11 for lodging; $7 for gas and oil, and $2.50 for tips and miscellaneous.

QUESTION: I understand a tourist can make a tour through the Hershey Chocolate Co. plant in Pennsylvania. Can you tell me if this is true, and what days can this be done?

Miss Parks, Kingston.

ANSWER: The Hershey Chocolate Corporation offers 40-minute plant tours Monday through Friday, except holidays, 8:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tours are not available Saturday or Sunday, but the visitor centre is open May 30 through the first weekend in October, 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Saturdays and 1 to 4 p.m. on Sundays.

QUESTION: We are going to Ste-Anne-de-Beaupre, Quebec, for a weekend. Could you tell me if the motels and tourists homes are still open and if we can get lower rates because of the off season? Which is the best road to take?

Miss Trainner, Kingston.

ANSWER: Take No. 401 and No. 2 all the way and for a change of scenery on your return, take No. 3 by crossing over at Quebec City and cross over at Valleyfield or Cornwall to get back to No. 2 and home.

The motels and tourists' homes are indeed still open. As a matter of fact, most of

No Blame Attached in Death

TORONTO (CP)—A coroner's jury attached no blame Friday night in the death of Agnes Racz, 46, who suffered internal injuries in an explosion while undergoing surgery at St. Michael's Hospital in January.

It recommended that manufacturers of anaesthetic equipment provide literature stressing proper procedures for safe operation and urged that operations requiring the use of anaesthetics that could possibly explode be in rooms with modern conductive floors.

A staff training program to make personnel more aware of the precautions necessary in the use of explosive anaesthetics was also recommended.

Douglas Lucas of the attorney-general's laboratory testified that a spark of static electricity must have touched off the explosion.

The explosion occurred in a rubber bag feeding a mixture of cyclopropane and oxygen into Mrs. Racz's lungs.

Static electricity could have built up on an insulated operating table on which the woman was lying, he said, because parts touching the floor were non-conductors.

Mr. Lucas said a metal grid on the floor, used to ground static electricity, was "less than satisfactory" and should be replaced.

Many of the hospital staff were not as aware of the explosive potential of the anaesthesia as they should have been, he added.

"There are recommendations for use of anaesthetic gases by the Canadian Standards Association," he said. "All hospitals should try to meet them."

An unusual combination of circumstances may have led to the buildup of static electricity.

The temperature outside the hospital was very cold and the Deputy fire chief William Carson got "quite a shock" when he picked up the damaged anaesthesia machine after the explosion, Mr. Lucas added. He said the anesthetist's stool possibly wasn't grounded either.

ROYALISM RESENTED

LUSAKA, Zambia (AP)—Portraits of the British Royal Family still hang in some white-run clubs here, and officials of the newly-independent government don't like it. Andrew Mutemba, a minister, says these clubs are "bent on perpetuating the colonial image," and plans to seek government action.

Dear Dr Burleigh

In the past from time to time I believe my father has been in touch with you regarding my family history etc, w. the Shilleys.

As you may or, may not know, he died quite suddenly, last August 22, 1962.

Lately I've been going through his papers on the family tree etc, and I would like to pursue, and perhaps complete, what he was trying to do. He had a objective of writing up a brief history of the family, and he certainly got to gather a mass of papers on the subject.

I should like to point out, that altho we were always aware that we were W. E. L. people etc, we never had any documentary acknowledgement of it. We were all told that we were of 'good old stock', and there the matter ended.

My Grandfather, Wellington James Shilly, named Francis M. Grant. Needless to say I heard a great deal about the Grants, who considered the Shillies, charlatans, shysters and imposters, with some justification, I'll admit; to be sporting about it.

However, the Shillies are still around, and the Ghents appear to be unthawing in the wine, due chiefly as near as I can ascertain to their habits of intermarrying, among themselves. I have a keen interest in the Ghents too, as I've heard Grandma Shilly (Ghent) say they were good soldiers and military type people.

I won't tire you with ^{any} more of this pointless ranting but get to point.

Is it possible for me to get a copy of Tucker's book, The Volantine Millers? There isn't a copy of this book among Dad's things - altho he made a few notes about getting one, and mentioned it frequently to me.

Why was the Shilly genealogical tree included in this book? and who went to the evident trouble of compiling all of the information, about the Shillies?

Last week while rummaging about in a downtown second hand book store - I became interested in, and purchased Vol I The life of Schuyler by Benson J. Lossing printed in 1860. It doesn't mention the Shillies.

of course, but it describes life, in minute detail of the ~~the~~ settlers around Fort Orange (Albany) prior to 1776, and up about 1780. The Shilleys, I understand originally come from Schodack N.Y., which is in the vicinity of Albany.

I'd used to mention Shilleys point - on Lake Ontario - could you tell me exactly where it is, and why it was so called?

Are there any 'direct line' survivors of the Jessop family still in Canada.

It appears to be a difficult task to get authentic reliable information - on matters such as this, and I hope I'm not asking too much of you.

For your record - I'd be glad to supply you with the up-to-date information on my own family - if you so desire, as I'd mentioned that you had a complete record of the Family etc.

Thank you for your time & patience.

Grand-Daughter, Elizabeth will be with me.
I am badly in need of a change and rest this year, just one year ago June 8-60, my mother passed away, and the last year has been difficult in more ways than one.

Grant is also a widower! the three of us live together at this address, I am steadily employed by the Ontario Research Foundation, I tell all this to you, to give you some idea of our immediate Background.

It is rather difficult to tell you in so many words, just what we are after, mostly early History of John Shibley, Jessops Corps, and what part of New York State he came from.

The Dept of Archives in Albany N.Y. have some information on record. I think they replied to my letter and promised to forward more detail, at a later date; due to pressure of so many queries of this nature - I imagine you could have more success, than I, with these people.

In any case, we will bring what we have in Correspondence, and will be guided by your advice and information, that, might be sufficient.

We will start out from Toronto on June 30, 61 - and will be in touch with you the following week, all being well.
It is my intention to visit Bath, Kingston

Harrowsmith and Lydenham,²

I might say that in the past, that my relatives down here have been very indifferent as to their Family History, Both Mother & Father's people are now advanced in years, that is the ones who are still alive, Just the odd one seems intelligent to me, in these matters at least.

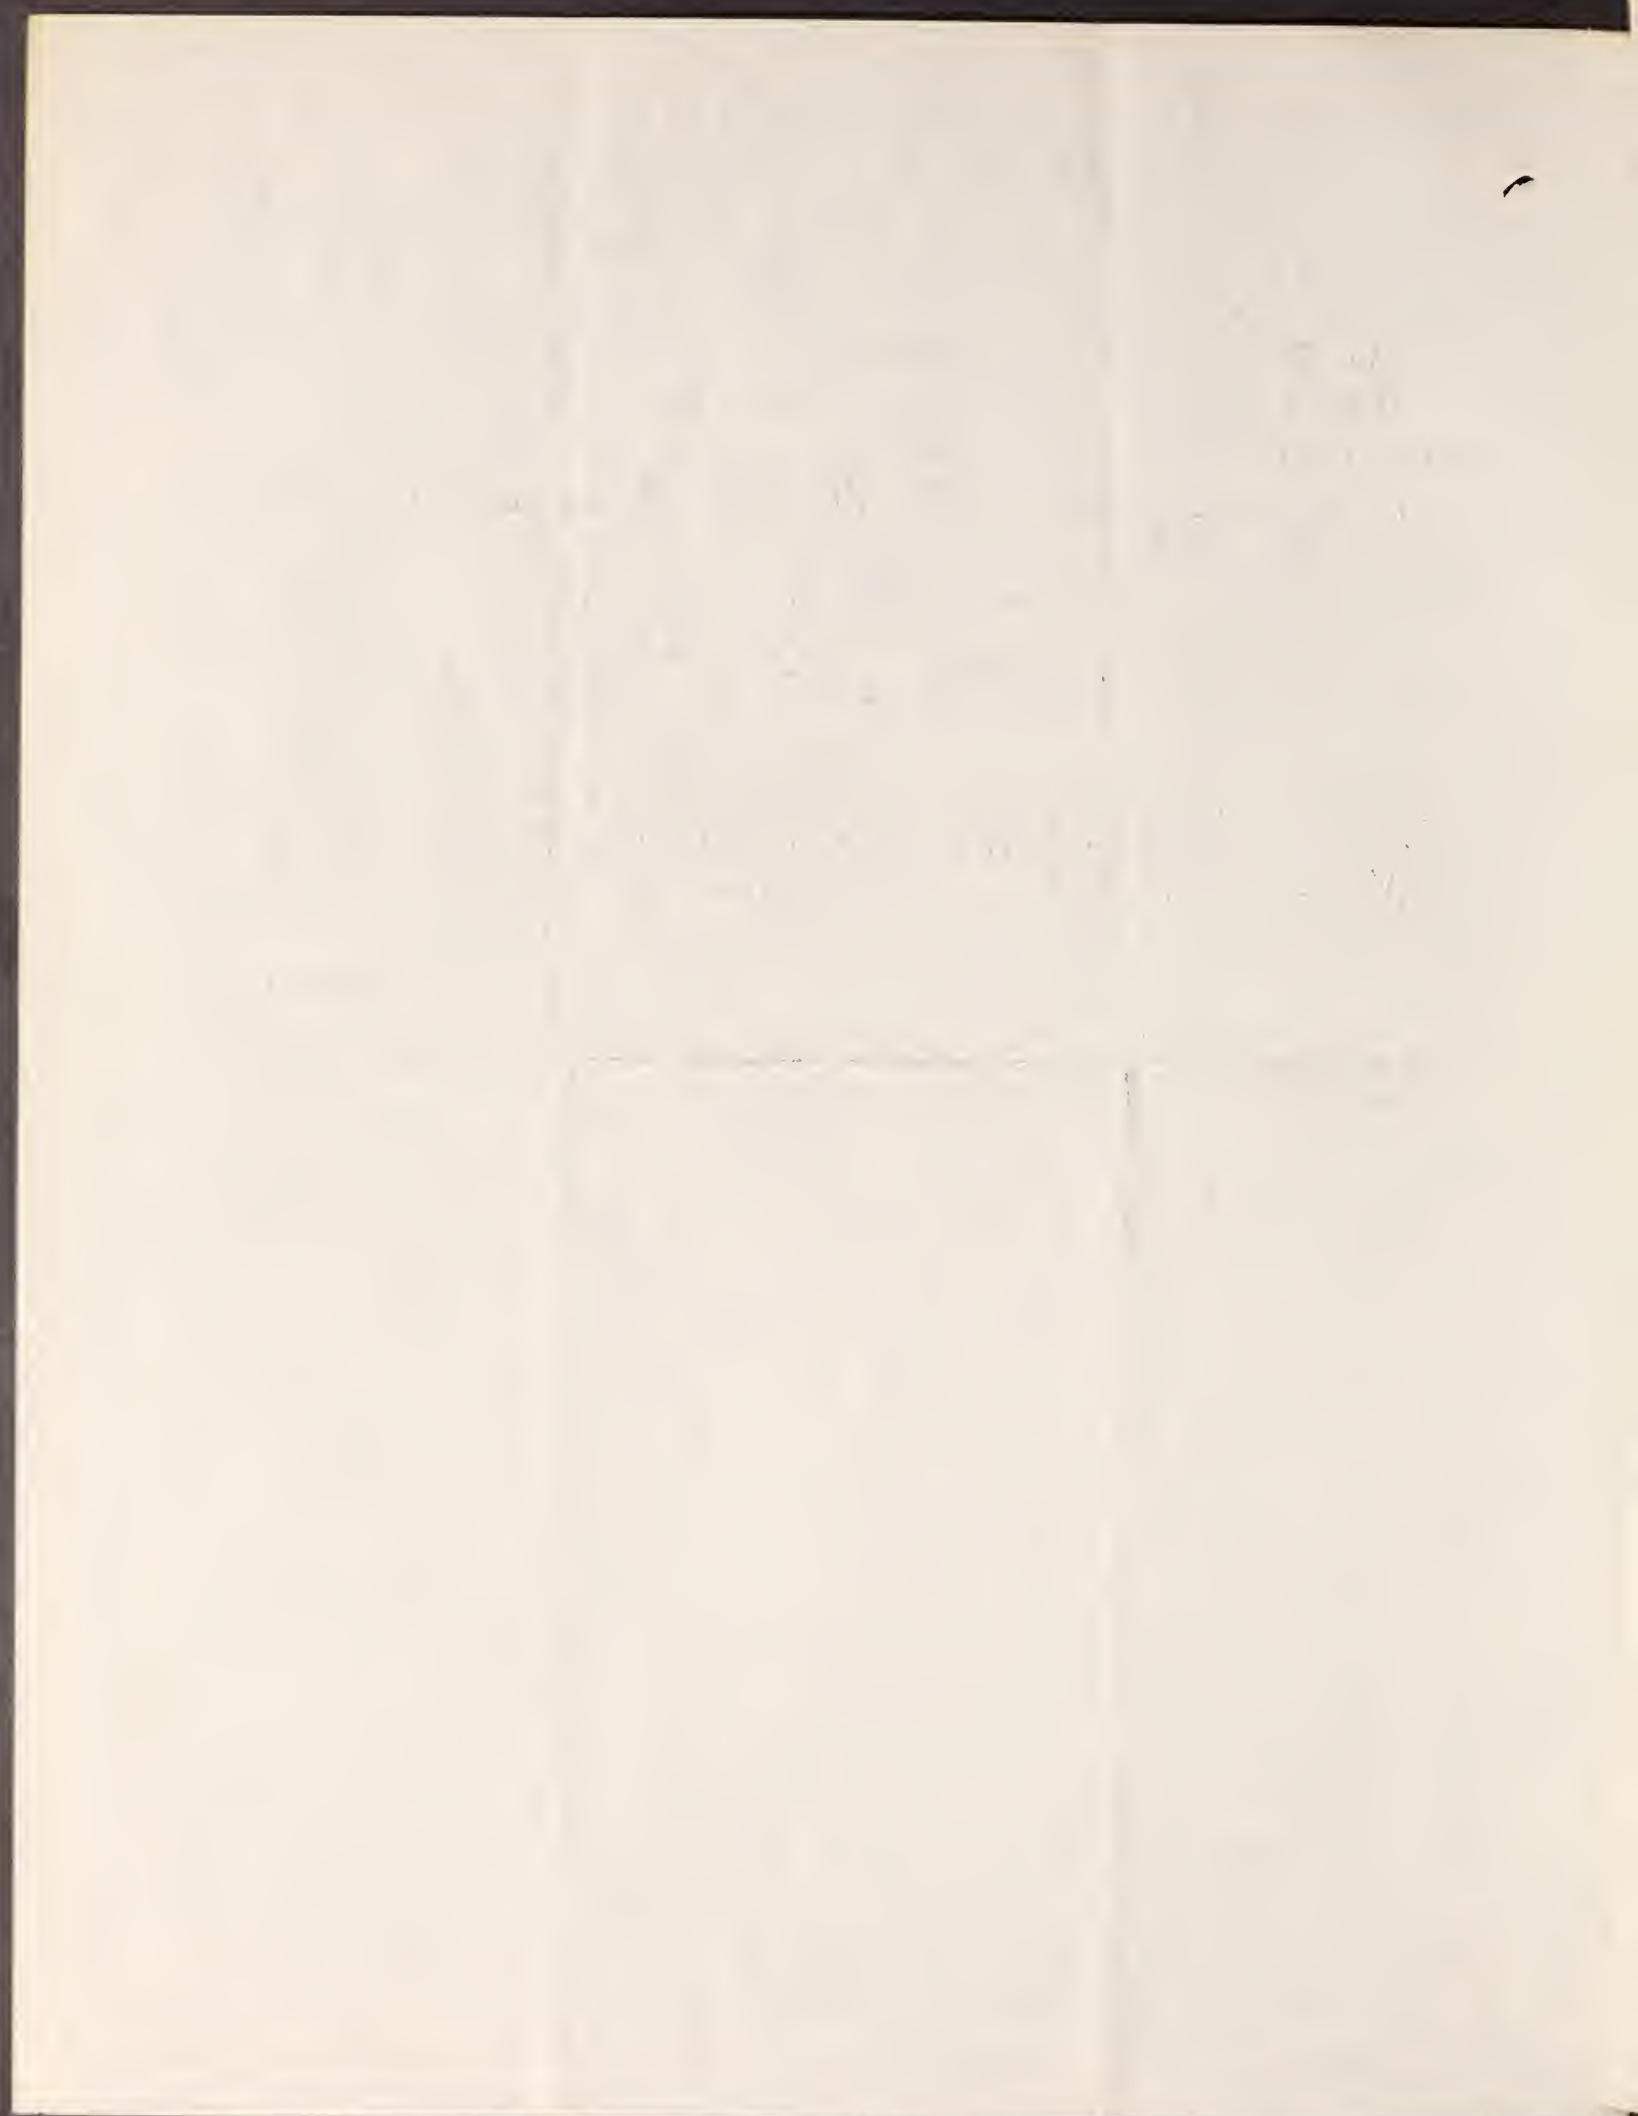

I look forward to meeting you, again
good health,

Very truly,

Wellington L. Sibley

P.S. Kindly excuse this paper, my eyes are not so good, this type of paper helps me.

Mr. W. S. Shibley,
695 Annette St.,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Mr. Shibley:

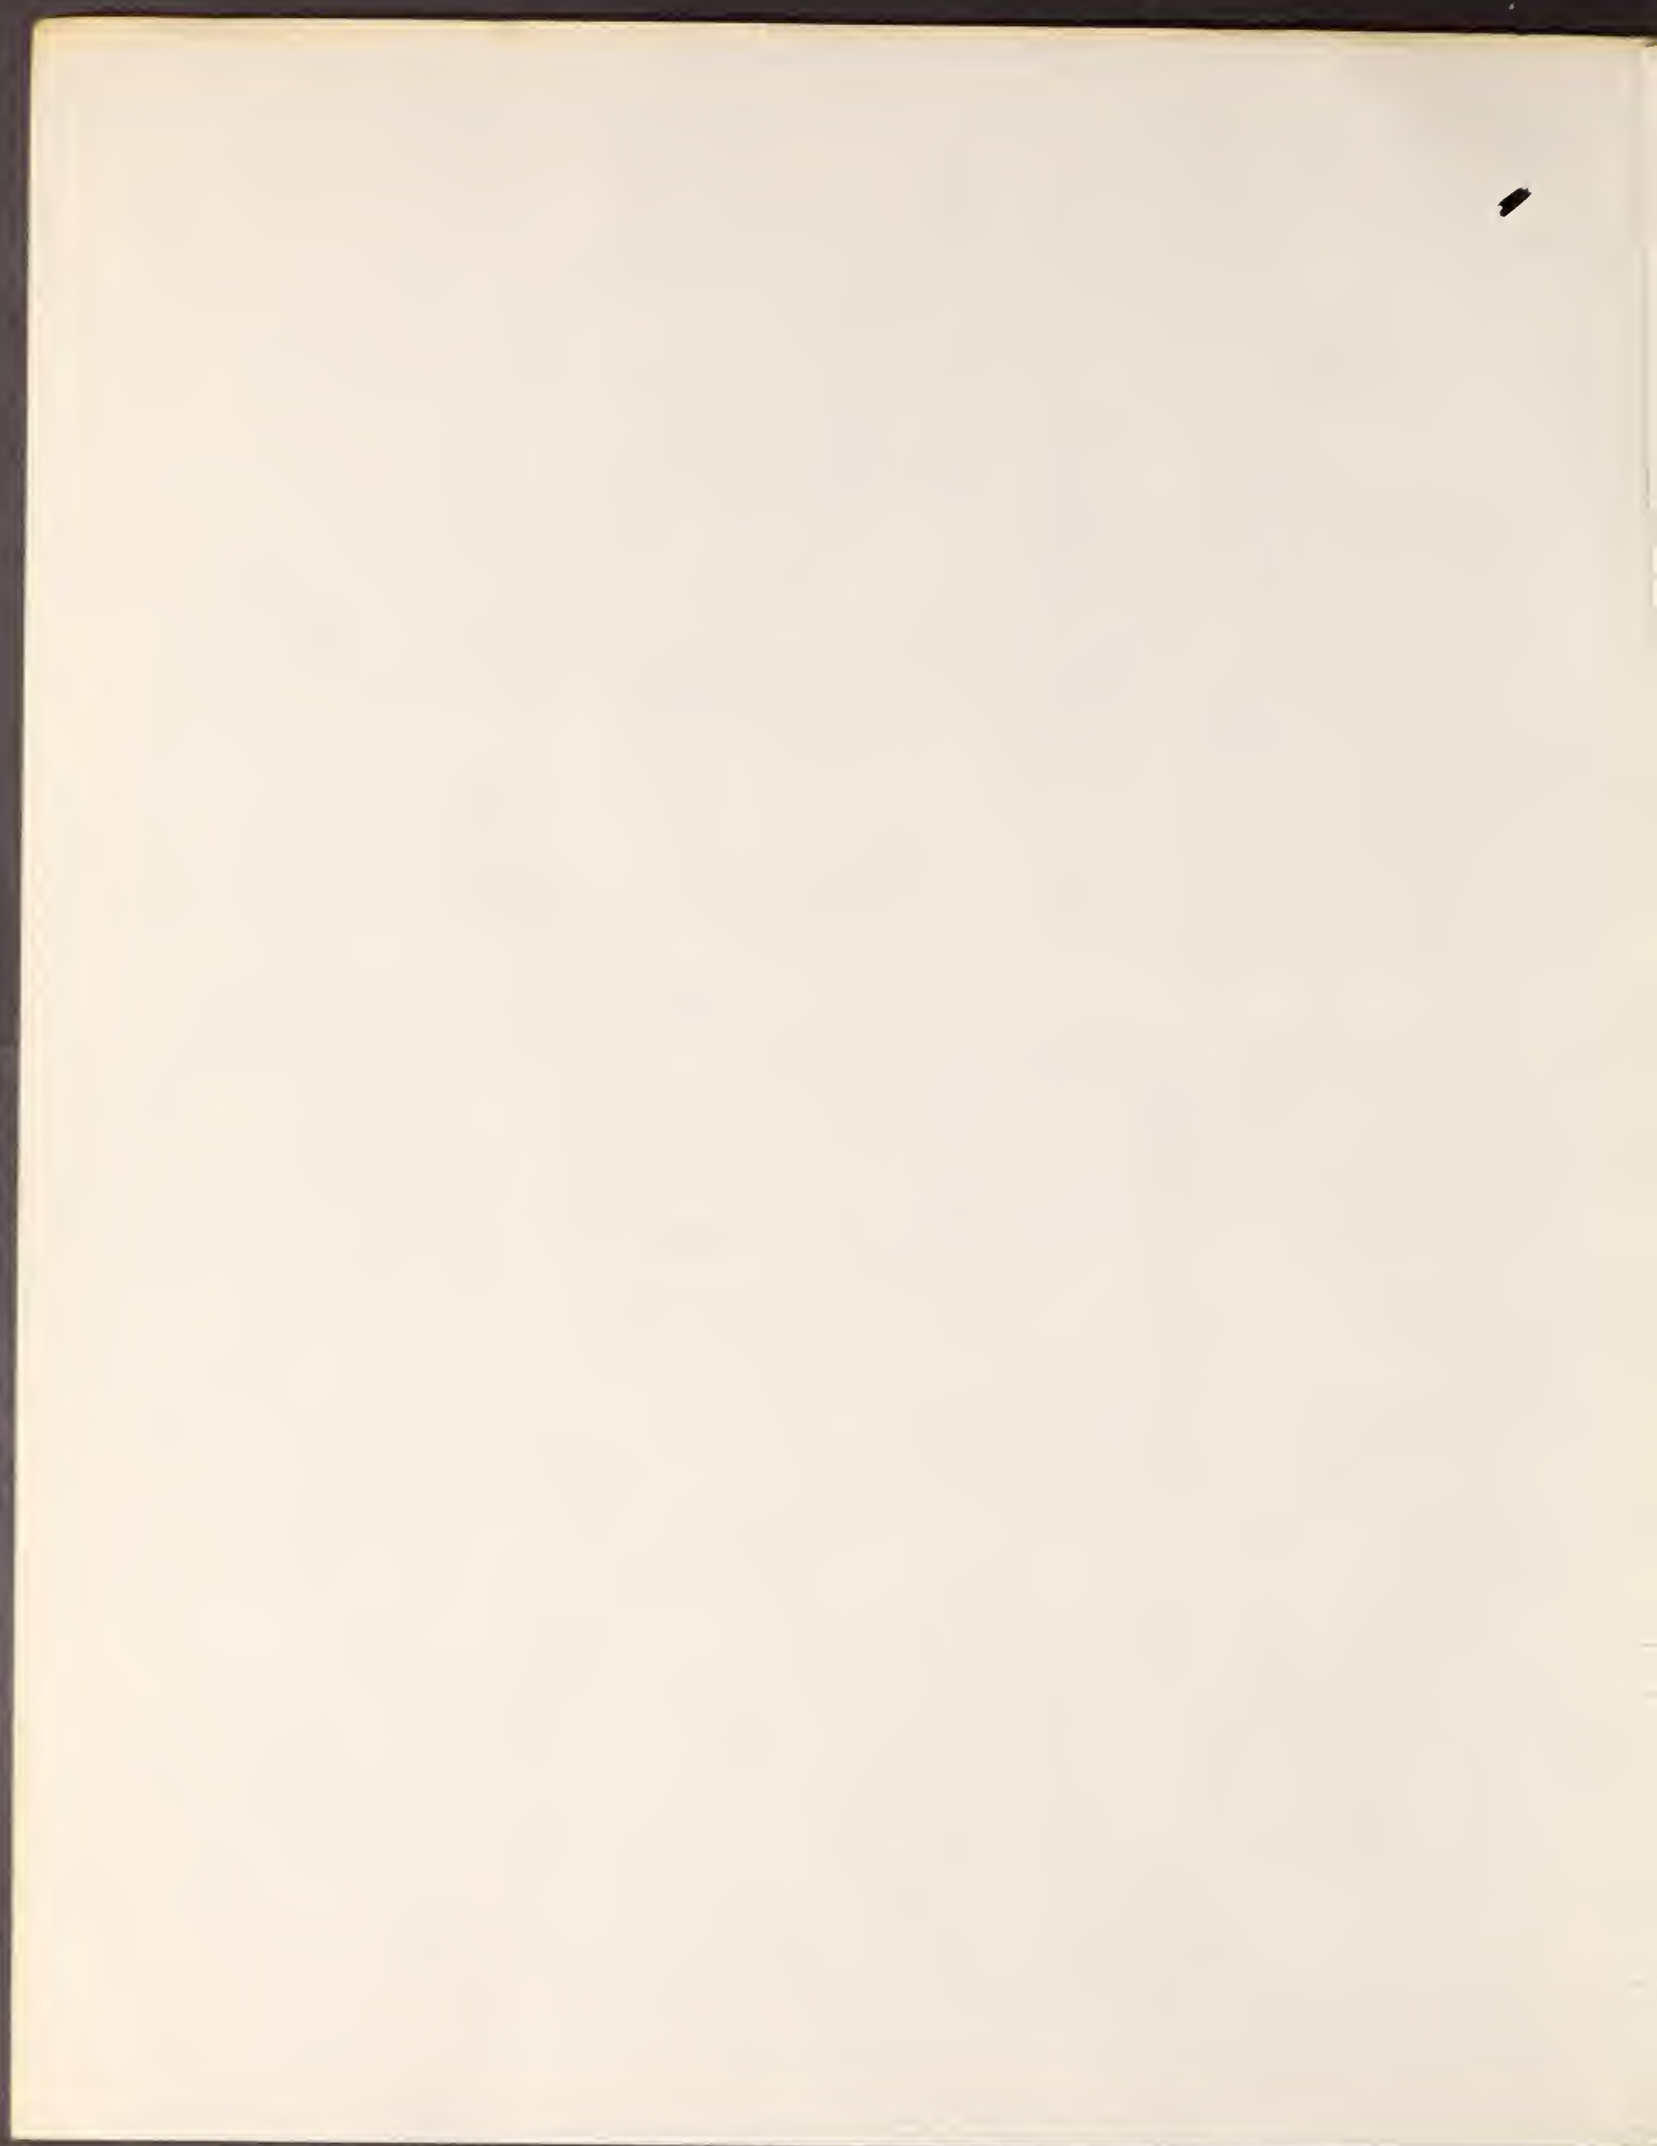

Many thanks for your kind letter of 4th inst. I received it during a period of intense research for the descendant of an old Bath family which owned the second farm east of the old Shibley place. I have now disposed of that problem, and, in re-reading your letter, I find that I am in doubt as to what you wish me to do. Is it your intention to come to Bath and to look over my files? Is it your intention to make copies of my notes? If so, give yourself two or three days, for I have an enormous amount of material dealing with your and allied families.

Let me state here that you and your son are eligible for membership in the U. E. Loyalist Association from at least three ancestors, maybe more. As you live in Toronto, you are not eligible to join our local, Bay of Quinte, Branch until you have first joined a Toronto Branch. A regulation demands that we cannot accept members from communities in which there is a Branch.

As far as is known, there are no Shibley descendants now living in Bath. The last, the widow of a Rouse, died a few weeks ago. Her son, however, still owns the house and lot. However, there are a few old-timers in the village who remember the old family.

If you should decide to come to Bath, please try to arrive on a Wednesday, so that we can have a free afternoon to become acquainted and organized. And, please let me know beforehand.

Yours sincerely,

Mr H. C. Burleigh
Box 9,
Bath Ont,

Dear Mr. Burleigh;

I received your letter of March 29, 61. and would thank you most sincerely for interesting yourself in this matter. I feel that I have been very fortunate, in that my letter came to your attention, in particular. Both myself and my son, Grant Shibley are acquainted with your work and accomplishments in the Historical field.

In June of last year my Mother passed away in her nineties, a good age, following her Death we came into possession of Rev. Tucker's Book on the "Palentine Millers", this, combined with previous knowledge, led me to believe that our search for Family History and Genealogy was almost complete, but I realize now that I spoke too soon, there are many Shibleys both in Canada and the United States, it would be a tremendous task to make it complete and costly.

We are mainly interested in finding where in the United States did the original John Shibley come from, his place of Burial, also information about his Wife & Family.

We have had considerable Correspondence with the Dept of Public Archives, here in Canada also the States and from individuals.

Also we want to Establish our claims in respect to qualifications for membership in the United Empire Loyalists Society and would see your advise and direction in this respect.

My late Father, has two sisters still alive a Mrs Rutledge of Sydenham Ont also a Mrs Cramm, widow of a minister, she live in Ottawa Ont.

I mention these names as you will see these names in the Shibley Genealogy in Rev. Tucker's Book. (I have enclosed this page) my Mother's name was Frances Grant daughter of James Grant of Sydenham Ont deceased many years ago.

Father's name was Wellington James Shibley he was known as Will Shibley, at least my Aunt Annie and Aunt Jennie in Ottawa refer to him as 'Will', Mother also called him 'Will'.

My son Grant Shibley and my self are both widowers, we live together with a young Grand-Daughter, age 6.

I have a sister in Kingston, a widow a Mrs J. C. Reynolds, her husband was the late J. C. Reynolds, County Judge. he died two years past.

We look forward to an early meeting with you, as we expect to visit the Kingston Area very soon, would be very pleased to meet you in person at your convenience. The fee you mention of 25.00 is satisfactory for a start, we will await a reply from you and wishing you the best of health, I remain, very truly.

GENERATION III

5. DAVID SHIBLEY m. (1) George, (2) Fyles.

Bath, Ont., 29 March, 1961.

Mr. Wellington S. Shibley,
695 Annette St.,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Mr. Shibley:

Your letter, addressed to the Bath Historical Society, has been handed to me because of my interest in local history. Also because I am the permanent President of the dormant Bath Historical Society which has not been active since 1939. Incidentally, I was active in the founding of that organization, and I have been collecting bits of information, diaries, obituaries, books, genealogies, etc., relevant to this part of Ontario, since 1926.

Since you mention the fact that you have recently completed a Genealogical Record of the Shibley Family, I am wondering why you wish further details. I also wonder if it has been published. If so, I am in the market for a copy. If it has not been published, or is in the process of completion, I can find a great deal of information, which, I feel confident, you have not obtained. In this regard, I refer to details of age, military records of John Shibley, his brother and his father-in-law, as well as many other items gathered from diaries, obituaries, census records, cemeteries, church records, etc., etc., etc.

I suppose that you have based your genealogy on that found in the Rev. Tucker's book on the Miller Family. If you are familiar with this book, you have made a good start. Incidentally, I have two unused copies of this book, if you have need of them.

There are two organizations in this locality in which you might be interested. They are:

The Lennox and Addington Historical Society, with annual fee of $1.00

The Bay of Quinte Branch of the U. E. Loyalist Society. Application fee is $3.00, plus an annual fee of $2.00

These are both active organizations and are worthy of support. I belong to both. Since you are a descendant of several Loyalists, you would be eligible to join the latter organization, but, as you live in Toronto, it would be necessary, according to our constitution, for you to join either of the Toronto Branches before being eligible to join our Branch also.

The first Shibleys were buried on the Shibley farm just west of this village. Others are buried in neighboring cemeteries. This early cemetery can be seen here, if you should ever come east. There are no markers. They were likely of wood, as were many of the earliest ones, and long since decayed.

I am sure that I have much that you would very much desire, and some of it may not be news to you, and would depend upon what you already have. Since sorting and copying from some fifty sources would be a large task, requiring the services of a typist, the cost might run to $25.00

If I can be of service to you, please let me know, and if the Genealogy has been published, I wish to buy a copy, for my records.

Sincerely,

Bath Historical Society
Bath Ont.

Re- John Shibley U.E.L.
Dear Sirs, Re ELLEN GORDANIER (WIFE)

Could you inform us of the Burial Place of John Shibley. United Empire Loyalists. he received Crown Grants in that district and around Kingston; also, he served in Tessups Corps. a military Group, have you any information available on these matters, his family received their Land Grants
some time in the 1780's.

Old records show he came from New York State, but what part of New York State we don't know.

Also, he married an Ellen Gordanier - where was her place of Burial? would you have any information available? Thanking you, we remain, Very truly

I would be glad to pay for any search, and would be very pleased to support any Historical Society or Group or attend in person any meeting. We have very recently completed a Genealogical Record of our family, and have much interest in all matters of this nature

My dear Dr. Burleigh:

I haven't done any research on the Shibley family for a long time. I have wondered if you found any more information.

I am enclosing the records that I have. If there is anything that you do not have, you are welcome to it. If you have anything in addition, I shall be glad if you will send it to me.

I have been informed that John Shibley lived at Flatbush, N.Y., before he joined Jersey's Rangers.

My great grandfather, Johannes Van Valkenburgh, was also a Loyalist. He married Hannah Patterson and they lived at Tonawanda, New York, before they went to Canada. That is about all I know of them. They also lived at Bath. If you run across anything about them, I shall appreciate it if you will let me know.

Sincerely yours,
